

FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE

The First Year Experience (FYE) community strives to help all new students living on campus for the first time in adjusting to college life and supporting them during their first year at NCC.

LOCATION

The First Year Experience Community is located in the 1200 and 2200 wings of the Residence Hall Commons. It features male/female rooms and bathrooms, along with a gender-neutral bathroom on each wing.

WHO ARE WE?

The FYE Community is a group of first-year students living and learning together that aims to make the transition to living on campus at NCC an exciting, memorable, and positive experience!

YOU 2.0

Besides building an exciting and fun community, we want you to be the best version of yourself that you can be... You 2.0!

This community will help to support your academic and personal growth, increase your independence, and form connects to NCC.

JOIN OUR COMMUNITY!

The community is open only to new residents who have not lived on campus previously, or new students to NCC. Select the "First Year Experience" under the Communities section of your housing application.
